4. CANCELLATION & TRANSFERS

4.1 Partial refunds: 50% refunds are available until June 31, 2025. No refunds will be issued after this date. Bank fees are borne by the runner.

4.2 BIB transfers: Runners unable to participate may transfer their entry to another person, provided they notify organizers by June 31, 2025.

4.3 Distance changes: Runners who wish to switch distances must notify organizers by June 31, 2025 and pay any price difference. No refunds will be given for switching to a shorter distance.

4.4 BIB swapping is strictly prohibited and will result in disqualification.

5. MANDATORY EQUIPMENT

5.1. Runners must carry the following mandatory equipment at all times during the Race, as described on www.highscardusultra.com

5.2. Failure to carry mandatory equipment may result in immediate disqualification.

5.3. Random gear checks may be conducted before, during, and after the Race.

6. ENVIRONMENTAL RESPONSIBILITY

6.1. Littering on the Race course is strictly prohibited. Any runner caught littering will be disqualified.

6.2. Runners must respect the natural environment, local communities, and wildlife.

6.3. Any damage caused to the environment, including unauthorized trail modification or destruction of flora and fauna, will result in penalties or disqualification.

7. PENALTIES & DISQUALIFICATIONS

7.1 Participants must check in at all control points. Any failure to do so may require proof of passage (GPS data, photos, or witnesses).

7.2 The following infractions will result in disqualification:

- Using a pacer,
- Major shortcuts or unauthorized paths,
- Littering,
- Using transport during the race,
- Failing to assist another runner in distress,
- Threatening or insulting organizers or volunteers,
- Continuing on course after missing a time cutoff,
- Competing with another person's BIB.

8. MEDICAL ASSISTANCE AND SAFETY

- 8.1. The Organizer will provide medical support along the course. However, Runners acknowledge that medical assistance may not be immediately available in remote areas.
- 8.2. Runners must immediately inform race officials if they or another participant require medical attention.
- 8.3. The Organizer reserves the right to withdraw any Runner deemed unfit to continue the Race.
- 8.4. Runners are responsible for knowing their physical limits and should not continue the Race if they experience severe distress or medical conditions.
- 8.5. In case of emergency evacuation, Runners agree to cover any costs incurred unless otherwise covered by the Organizer's insurance.

9. LIABILITY AND INSURANCE

- 9.1. Runners participate in the Race entirely at their own risk and acknowledge the dangers associated with ultra-trail running, including but not limited to injuries, adverse weather conditions, terrain hazards, and altitude effects.
- 9.2. The Organizer, sponsors, partners, and any associated parties shall not be held liable for any injuries, fatalities, property damage, or financial loss incurred during or as a result of participation in the Race.
- 9.3. Runners are strongly advised to have personal accident insurance covering ultra-endurance events.
- 9.4. The Organizer is not responsible for any lost, stolen, or damaged personal belongings before, during, or after the event.
- 9.5. Runners acknowledge that participation in the Race involves risks, including injury or death, and they voluntarily accept full responsibility for these risks.

10. CODE OF CONDUCT & DISQUALIFICATION

- 10.1. Any form of cheating, including course-cutting or receiving external aid outside of designated areas, will result in immediate disqualification.
- 10.2. Runners must show respect toward fellow participants, race staff, and volunteers. Any abusive or unsportsmanlike behavior may result in penalties or disqualification.
- 10.3. The Organizer reserves the right to disqualify any Runner who fails to comply with these Rules & Regulations.
- 10.4. Runners are strictly prohibited from using performance-enhancing drugs or banned substances. Any violation will result in lifetime disqualification.
- 10.5. Runners must follow the designated course at all times. Any deviation from the course may result in time penalties or disqualification.

11. FORCE MAJEURE & RACE CANCELLATION

- 11.1. The Organizer reserves the right to delay, modify, or cancel the Race due to force majeure events, including but not limited to extreme weather conditions, natural disasters, or security threats.
- 11.2. In the event of Race cancellation, the Organizer shall not be liable for any costs incurred by Runners, including but not limited to travel and accommodation expenses.
- 11.3. If the Race is interrupted or canceled after it has started, no refunds will be issued.

11.4 If the event is canceled due to force majeure (e.g., government restrictions), all registrations will be transferred to the following year. No refunds will be issued.

12. MEDIA RIGHTS AND DATA USAGE

12.1. By participating in the Race, Runners consent to the use of their image, name, and likeness in any promotional materials, including but not limited to photos, videos, and social media content.

12.2. The Organizer reserves the right to share race results, including participant names and finishing times, on official platforms.

12.3. Any commercial use of footage or imagery from the Race requires prior written approval from the Organizer.

13. FINAL PROVISIONS

13.1. All decisions made by the Race Director and Organizer are final and binding.

13.2 Appeals must be made verbally within 30 minutes of finishing, followed by a written submission (if necessary) with supporting evidence (photos, GPS data, or witness statements). The race director's decision is final.

13.3. Any disputes arising from participation in the Race shall be governed by the applicable laws of the host country.

13.4. By registering for the High Scardus Ultra, Runners confirm that they have read, understood, and accepted these Rules & Regulations in their entirety
